

Contact: Emily Eakin
512.452.8877

emily@watkinsinsurancegroup.com

Immediate Release:

Matt Womack is named President of Independent Insurance Agents of Austin

Watkins Insurance Group Vice President voted to lead local association in 2011

Austin, TX – August 15, 2010 – Matt Womack, Vice President and Partner of Watkins Insurance Group has been elected as the 2011 President of Independent Insurance Agents of Austin (IIAA).

“I am honored to be named IIAA’s 2011 President.” said Womack. “One of the largest benefits of being a member of Independent Insurance Agents of Austin is being a part of a knowledgeable and supportive group. IIAA is a collection of professionals who encourage each other and come together to benefit the community.”

IIAA is comprised of independent insurance agents in the Austin area. Over the past four years the Independent Insurance Agents of Austin have raised and donated a total of $48,000 to Austin charities from their annual Andre’ Juneau Memorial Golf Tournament. In June of 2010 all $18,000 in proceeds from their 4th annual tournament was given to the Austin Children’s Shelter.

About Watkins Insurance Group

Founded in Austin in 1949, Watkins Insurance Group is one of the largest and fastest-growing independent insurance agencies in Texas. Headquartered in Austin, Watkins Insurance Group has seven locations throughout Texas including offices in Holly Lake, Longview, Marble Falls, Mineola, Tyler and Waco.

For more information about Watkins Insurance Group, please visit www.watkinsinsurancegroup.com

####