ABOUT WATKINS INSURANCE GROUP

We are a full-service, locally-owned insurance agency founded in 1949. Our mission statement "We're here to help." drives all interactions, be it with our clients, our industry, or the communities in which we live and serve.

At the heart of Watkins Insurance Group are employees who embrace the mission of being servant leaders. The act of service is a part of our DNA. We are not relying on an impersonal large agency model to define our success.

We remain committed to beginning each day with a goal to improve at least 1%. We continue to build value-added services focused on benefitting our clients. We remain persistent in our focus to strengthen our ties to the community. We will pursue and develop insurance professionals who will provide unparalleled service to our clients and bring forth change in our industry.
